The Poets House Showcase is made possible through the generosity of hundreds of publishers and authors who have graciously contributed their books. We are also deeply grateful to Deborah Pease for her ongoing support. Thanks to the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts, the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, The Concordia Foundation, the Leon Levy Foundation, The Lila Acheson Wallace Theatre Fund of the New York Community Trust, and our many Poets House Members for their support of this project.
Celebrating the 18th annual Poets House Showcase, we welcome you to our new home beside the Hudson!

The Showcase is Poets House’s annual, all-inclusive exhibition of more than 2,000 poetry books, chapbooks, broadsides, and multimedia works published in the United States. We began the Showcase as a combination collection-development approach to building our library and a celebration of poetry publishing. We invited publishers to participate by donating copies of their new poetry titles, and in this way we continually add to our library all of the latest books, building one of the most comprehensive collections of poetry available to the public. Our mission has always been to be all-inclusive, to offer a democratic home for the range of poetry books published nationally. And we searched for it all: big presses, micropublishers, and artists’ collectives participate annually.

To ensure that we reach as many presses as possible, our collection-development approach includes contacting publishers but also searching for artists’ books by micropublishers and artists’ collectives on such sites as Etsy (a place to buy and sell handmade objects). We also make use of social media throughout the year to invite poets and publishers to participate in the exhibition.

Our focus in developing the collection is on U.S. publishers, but word is out about the Showcase; we happily include international titles, displayed in the exhibition in a separate International section and indexed as International Publishers in this catalog (following the U.S. Publishers and Author indices).

The exhibition includes scholarly work by major publishers and fresh voices introduced by chapbook publishers. As in past years the Showcase includes poetry presented in atypical formats: as scrolls in cigarette cases; booklets inserted in matchboxes; poetry “baseball” cards; accordion cards; poetry currency (who wouldn’t want to pay with poetry?); even inserted in a repurposed wine menu holder.

The Showcase is on view for one month. After July 31, the 2010 titles move upstairs from the programming hall into our main collection of 50,000+ titles.

Our aim of inclusivity leaves it up to you to find new gems and rediscover favorite poets. Here is the quantitative breakdown of the 2010 Showcase: There are 2,176 titles published by 649 U.S. presses; 554 chapbooks; 76 bilingual (or multilingual) titles (representing 26 languages!); 117 anthologies; and 31 multimedia titles. In this display there are 1,306 titles published in 2009 and 870 in 2010. (Poets House’s 2009 Showcase was held in April 2009; this year’s titles were published subsequently.) In a supplementary exhibit, there are 185 books by international publishers.
The words, the words: We generated a word cloud of all 2,164 titles to come up with the most frequently occurring words:

Word Cloud of Poets House 2010 Showcase Titles

A word cloud is a visual representation of the most frequently occurring words in a set. From Wordle.com.

Thank you to Lee Briccetti, Executive Director and Jane Preston, Managing Director, and all the staff: Jen Chen, Nolan Chessman, Molly Dempsey, Robert Holczer, Marsha Howard, Alice Kaasik, Krista Manrique, Claude McCalla, Stephen Motika, Mike Romanos, Suzanne Wise, and Carlin Wragg. Thank you to the Poets House board of directors for their unflagging support of our mission. And our deepest gratitude to Deborah Pease, whose love of this program and of Poets House supports all of our efforts.

Our dedicated volunteers and interns enthusiastically searched for, cataloged, and displayed the books in this exhibition and are an essential part of Poets House. Thank you to Sophie Bloomfield, Sofije Brijia, Dominika Burek, Jean Raphael Cornell, Scott Doolin, Dena Elamrousi, Hannah Farmery, Rivka Fogel, Rebecca Galpern, Eric Himmelfarb, Sarah Jones, Brittany Kleinschnitz, Lisa Kolarsick, Julie Kantor, Derek Kroessler, Jessi Lauffer, Stella Lee, Sarah LeWarn, Michael Lopez, Lama Makarem, Christina Manzella, Elizabeth Metzger, Shelley Miller, Katie Naoum, Alyssa Rapp, Johanna Rothenberg, Gina Scalise, and Rebecca Scher.
