2016
24th Annual
Poets House Showcase
Exhibition Catalog
The 2016 Poets House Showcase is made possible through the generosity of the hundreds of publishers and authors who have graciously donated their works. We are deeply grateful to Deborah Saltonstall Pease (1943–2014) for her foundational support. Many thanks are also due to the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York State Council on the Arts, the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs, and the many members of Poets House for their support of this project.
“Poetry is intimately concerned with the historic process. It tells us what it feels like to be alive in a given time and place. Words themselves, forever tuned to the passing show, forever tied to their own roots yet forever changing, are the most sensitive of recording instruments.”

—Stanley Kunitz, remarks at the opening session of the 3rd Annual New York/New Jersey Poetry Teachers Conference, November 2nd, 1989

WELCOME to the 2016 Poets House Showcase, the annual, all-inclusive exhibition of the most recent poetry books, chapbooks, broadsides, artist’s books, and multimedia works published in the United States and abroad. This year marks the 24th anniversary of the Poets House Showcase, featuring over 3,000 books from more than 750 different presses and publishers. Since its inception, the Showcase has helped to build one of the most extensive collections of poetry in our nation—a wide-ranging record of the poetry of our time.

Building the Exhibit—and the Poets House Library Collection

Every year, Poets House invites poets and publishers to participate in the annual Showcase by donating copies of poetry titles released since January of the previous year. This year’s exhibit highlights poetry titles published in 2015 and the first part of 2016.

Poets House aims to provide a comprehensive, inclusive collection of poetry that is free and open to the public. To this end, the library staff reaches out to as many poetry communities and producers as it can find. The Poets House Showcase strives to include every kind of poetry from every type of publisher, whether it is the product of a large press, university or independent press, an artists’ collective, a micropress, a letterpress studio, or one of the many poets who self-publish their work. Books are contributed by the entire poetry community, from the poets and publishers who send on their newest titles as they’re released, to library visitors carrying a book to donate when they visit us. Every publication is welcomed and celebrated in the Showcase.
Organization and Scope of the Showcase

The Showcase exhibit is organized alphabetically by publisher, making it a snapshot of this moment in time for those who wish to understand the changing landscape of poetry publishing in the United States. It also acts as a valuable resource for poets seeking to find a good home for their manuscript, or to understand the publishing landscape.

The Poets House Showcase focuses on individual collections of poetry, but it also includes a wide array of prose and criticism, anthologies, chapbooks, and multilingual volumes. As in past years, the Showcase includes poetry presented in formats from traditional broadsides to poetry trading cards, to one-of-a-kind handmade artist’s books and art objects.

The focus of the Poets House Showcase is on United States presses and publishers, but the collection is also designed to serve an international community of poets. For this reason, Poets House includes books from international publishers—particularly English-language books from Canadian and United Kingdom publishers, but also those we receive from other countries as well.

Exhibition Dates and Programs

The 2016 Poets House Showcase opens to the public on July 14th, 2016 and remains open during regular library hours until August 20th, 2016. During these five weeks, readings will be held in celebration of the Showcase from some of the many authors whose works are featured in the exhibition, including Cameron Awkward-Rich, Derrick Austin, Laurel Blossom, Tyehimba Jess, Patricia Spears Jones, Rickey Laurentiis, Janice Lowe, Wayne Miller, Michael Morse, Anna Moschovakis, Alicia Jo Rabins, Camille Rankine, Solmaz Sharif, Stacy Szymaszek, Vincent Toro, Simone White, and others.

At the close of the exhibit, Showcase titles move upstairs into the Reed Foundation Library, where for a year they are shelved separately, so that they remain accessible to visitors wishing to browse the previous year’s titles. At the time of the next Showcase, the previous year’s Showcase titles are integrated into our ever-growing 70,000-item poetry collection.
The Numbers

The 2016 Poets House Showcase includes 3049 titles from 772 publishers and presses. This includes 359 chapbooks, 136 anthologies, 106 prose works, 43 broadsides, 42 artist’s books, and 10 multimedia works. 104 of the titles are foreign-language, bilingual, or multilingual, in 39 different languages, from French, Spanish, and German to Sinhala, Dari, and Anishinaabemowin. Of the 3049 titles, 2,071 were published in 2015 and 978 in 2016. 32 are uncorrected proofs and advance reading copies of books yet to be published. 2780 books were published by U.S. presses, and 269 were published by presses based in other countries, from Canada and the UK to Romania and Indonesia.

How to Participate in the Poets House Showcase

Poets House gladly accepts donations for our annual Showcase all year, and all titles donated to us within a year of their publication will be included in that year’s Showcase. As the Showcase is an inclusive event, Poets House encourages all publishers and poets to submit one (1) copy of their most recently published poetry titles to Poets House to have it featured in our next exhibit.

Please direct your submissions to Amanda Glassman, Librarian and Archivist, and help spread the word!

Acknowledgements

Poets House wishes to thank each author, publisher, and poetry lover who contributed the thousands of books in this exhibition. Without your generosity, the Poets House Showcase could not exist. Special thanks to Brent Cunningham and the rest of our friends at Small Press Distribution for contributing many key titles to our exhibition.

Many thanks to the Board of Directors for their unflagging support of our mission. Thanks to Lee Briccetti, Executive Director, and Jane Preston, Managing Director, for facilitating and encouraging this endeavor. Thanks to the Poets House staff—Lauren Clark, Christina Lem, Suzanne Lunden-Metzger, Stephen Motika, Gina Scalise, Bleuberthol Scott, and Suzanne Wise—for their guidance and aid. The 2016 Showcase is presented with deepest gratitude to Deborah Saltonstall Pease, whose love of this program and Poets House was an essential foundation for all of our achievements here.

It’s been my pleasure to work with Reginald Harris, our Director of Library and Outreach Services, whose steadfast support, sense of humor, and true dedication to poetry have been invaluable. Special acknowledgement is also due to cataloging volunteer Carolyn Lee, for her quiet determination and lightning-fast fingers. Thank you as well to all of the Poets House volunteers and interns, who generously gave their time to help us catalog, alphabetize, shelve, display, and otherwise keep tabs on over 3,000 books: Matthew Anish, Sarah Barlow-Ochshorn, Lucy Barness, Christian Black, Brian Carpenter, Nia Cavazos, Nataya Culler, Camilla Fernandez, David Hirsch, Joan Hendrix, Jade Jarencio, Mirah Kozodoy, Victoria Laboz, Sunny Liu, Delsa Lopez, Daniel Marx, Leonor Miller, Nadia Oakley, Mikhail Shklyarevsky, Keenan Smith, Marty Strom, Irina Teveleva, and Kailey Winston.

And a final thank you to the people we’ve built this Showcase for: our readers, visitors, and Poets House patrons. We hope you find inspiration and beauty in our newest crop of books, and in each new Showcase for years to come.
