Showcase Exhibit Overview

Welcome to the Poets House 28th Showcase, our all-inclusive exhibition of the poetry books, chapbooks, broadsides, artists' books, and multimedia works published in the U.S. and abroad in 2020 & 2021. We are presenting these in 2024 because the COVID-19 Pandemic along with major renovations at Poets House, led to a prolonged delay.

The 28th Poets House Showcase features over 2,600 books from more than 600 different presses and publishers. For nearly three decades, the Showcase has helped to keep our collection current and relevant, building one of the most extensive collections of poetry in our nation—an expansive record of the poetry of our time, freely available and open to all.

Building the Exhibit and the Poets House Library Collection

Every Showcase, Poets House invites poets and publishers to participate by donating copies of poetry titles released since the previous Showcase. This exhibit highlights poetry titles published in the second half of 2019 and those published in 2020 and 2021. Books showcased have been generously given to us from all sectors of the poetry community. Some of the donors include independent and commercial publishers who send us their new titles, poets who mail or drop off signed books, and library visitors who donate their cherished copies. Every newly published book is welcomed, appreciated, and featured in the Showcase.

The Poets House Showcase is the mechanism through which we build our library: a comprehensive, inclusive collection of over 80,000 poetry works, all free and open to the public. To make it as extensive as possible, we reach out to as many poetry communities and producers as possible, bringing together poetic voices of all kinds to meet the different needs and interests of our many library patrons. We strive to reflect the vast diversity of poets across race, gender, sexual orientation, age, faith, ability, class, citizenship, and nationality. We also welcome every kind of poetry from every type of publisher, whether it is the product of a commercial or university press, an independent press or small press, or one of the many poets who self-publish.

Organization and Scope of the Showcase

The Showcase exhibit is organized alphabetically by publisher, to bring attention to the unique editorial voice of each publisher and create a snapshot of this particular moment in the ever-changing landscape of American poetry publishing. It also acts as a valuable resource for poets seeking to learn how to navigate the publishing scene, allowing them to get a feel for which presses might be suitable for their own work based on each press's authors and poetic style.

The Poets House Showcase focuses on single volumes of poetry, but it also includes a wide array of prose and criticism, anthologies, chapbooks, and multimedia works. As in past years, the Showcase includes poetry presented in formats beyond the conventional, ranging from traditional broadsides and ephemera to records and cassettes, poetry trading cards, one-of-a-kind artists' books, and unusual poetic objects like placemats and stickers.

The focus of the Poets House Showcase is on presses and publishers from the United States, but the collection is also designed to serve an international community of English-speaking poets. For this reason, Poets House includes books from international publishers—particularly from Canadian and British publishers; we also receive English language books and books in translation from other countries.

Exhibition Dates and Programs

The 2024 Poets House Showcase opens to the public on April 6th, 2024, and remains open during regular library hours until May 31st, 2024. During these nine weeks, readings will be held in celebration of the Showcase from some of the many authors whose works are featured in the exhibition, including: Rosebud Ben-Oni, Mei-Mei Berssenbrugge, Eduardo C. Corral, Cornelius Eady, Megan Fernandez, Benjamin Garcia, John Keene, Lara Mimoso Montes, Myra Shapiro, and Pamela Sneed.

At the close of the exhibit, Showcase titles move from Elizabeth Kray Hall upstairs into the Reed Foundation Library, where they are integrated into our ever-growing 80,000-item poetry collection.

The Numbers

The 2024 Poets House Showcase includes 2,636 titles from 680 publishers and presses. Of the 2636 titles, 632 were published in 2019, 1014 in 2020, and 990 in 2021. This includes 336 chapbooks. 139 of the titles are bilingual or multilingual, in 32 different languages, including: Spanish, Italian, Polish, and Japanese to Navajo, Bhojpuri, and Kurdish.

How to Participate in the Poets House Showcase

Poets House gladly accepts donations for our annual Showcase all year. We encourage all publishers and poets to submit one copy of their most recently published poetry titles—every book published in 2022, 2023, or 2024 is welcome—to Poets House for our next exhibition. Please direct your submissions to Ryan Mita, our Showcase Coordinator, reachable at ryan@poetshouse.org, and help spread the word!

Acknowledgments

Poets House wishes to thank each author, editor, publisher, and poetry lover who contributed to the thousands of books in this exhibition. Without your generosity, the Poets House Showcase could not exist. Special thanks to Rob Arnold, Poets House Executive Director, and Jane Preston, Managing Director for facilitating this endeavor. Special acknowledgment is also due to our Operations manager Nick Buffon, without whom this project would not be possible.

Thank you as well to our access services team who has spent tireless hours researching, organizing, formatting, shelving, curating, and so much more: Caroline Foulke, Katy Frank, Leo Kreider, Jade Mapp, Mike Orellana Michala, and Molly Ripatti. Finally, thank you to Poets House's Board of Directors, funders, and friends for their myriad contributions that keep this place for poetry alive and open to everyone.
